The Difference Compassion Makes

The son of one of our patients shared how the care his father received from Elizabeth, one of our hospice nurses, made a profound difference during his final days.

"Elizabeth was exceptionally professional, gracious, calm and compassionate at a time when our family needed all of those things. She treated him with dignity. She answered difficult questions without being evasive, and she helped us understand what was happening as his condition changed. In our family's time of need, Elizabeth was exactly the kind of person we needed."
